

Hey

Leeland

I'd give myself to find You
Stumble and fall to see You
You're worth it all to me, You are
I'd swim across the stormy seas
And scream it from the mountain peaks
You're worth it all to me, You are (And I said)
Hey, You're the one
That I've been looking for
And I found You here
And I found You here Thinking back on all the times
I passed You by with blinded eyes
I thought that I would be just fine
Tripping over all my lies
I saw you there with no disguise
You're worth it all to me, You are Do you see my celebration?
For this open invitation to Your arms
Your arms, it's a beautiful fixation
As I find myself surrounded by Your love, Your love
