

The Reverend King

Serj Tankian

The visceral application of death in your own (applications)

Your own time (time)

The wedges of strength lie beyond you

Discover What it is that you need...

The reverend king said:

All the lights are gone (all the lights are gone)

All the lights are gone and the tracks,

The tracks that turn us into space.

Seeing as seeing is believing

Believing is seeing

Believing

The reverend king said:

DARE QUESTION ME FOR THE LIFE OF MY SUBJECTS

BUT JUST HAD A GREAT MIRACLE!!!

The visceral application of death in your own,

Your own time.

The wedges of strength lie beyond you.

Discover what it is that you mean...

The reverend king said:

All the lights are gone,

All the lights are gone and the tracks,

The tracks that turn us into space.

Seeing as seeing is believing (believing is being) (seeing is believing)
