

Sail Away

Kai Altair

You're a day dream
You're a night dream
You're a moonbeam, and I'm so sleepy
But I can't seem to get you off my mind in the moonlight
Well, my head's dizzy it won't listen
But I can't help it, I just felt you
And I can't seem to get you off my mind at all

I wanna sail away on a sea of heavenly lovelight
I wanna sail away while we still got dreams in our eyes
So call the high tide, I'll call the low tide
And we'll go sail away on a sea of love tonight

Well it's too late, and I'm still waiting for
Some dream that just won't save me
Cause I just wanna hold you all night long in the moonlight
My world's spinnin' and you're in it
And you sparkle, and you glimmer
And I don't even wonder what I see at all

I wanna sail away on a sea of heavenly lovelight
I wanna sail away while we still got dreams in our eyes
So call the high tide, I'll call the low tide
And we'll go sail away on a sea of love tonight
