

Streets of Babylon

Blaudzun

Flash-lit snaps of falling down
Put on your masks send in the clowns
Hold your breath, cut of your tongue
These are the streets of Babylon Watch the smoke curl now from her mouth
Cover your eyes, cover your doubts
Don't look back, keep running on
These are streets of Babylon See no, hear no, speak no
Babylon radio
See no, hear no, speak no
Nothing beats the happiness of believing your own lies You hurry up to join the motorcade
On your way to the tiger cage
Spending all your money like it's '83
A, b, c, d, please retweet me Watch the smoke curl now from her mouth
Cover your ears to mute the shouts
We are back where we belong
These are streets of Babylon See no, hear no, speak no
Babylon radio
See no, hear no, speak no
Nothing beats the happiness of believing your own lies
Nothing beats the happiness of believing your own lies
Nothing beats the happiness of believing your own lies Hey, hello, how do you do?
I can see your lips, moving slow
But I can't hear you
