

Everytime You Cry (with John Farnham)

Human Nature & John Farnham

Ooh oo - ooh yeah
Ooh oo - ooh Never before have I seen you look so blue
I can't find a cure and nothing comforts you
The light at the end of the tunnel
Doesn't shine at the end of the day Everytime you cry
Save up all your tears
I will be your rainbow
When they disappear
Wash away the pain
'Til you smile again
I will be the laughter in your eyes
Every time you cry
Every time you cry
Time has a way of wounding what has healed
What can I say? I know just how you feel
Your soul is dark and troubled
Like a river running wild Everytime you cry
Save up all your tears
I will be your rainbow
When they disappear
Wash away the pain
'Til you smile again
I will be the one who dries your eyes
Every time you cry
Every time you cry
Well, you know that's what I'm here for
I will give you when you need more
There will be no hesitation
I will reap no reward [CHORUS to fade]
