

Afterwards

Oh Pep!

Oh Pep!
Afterwards
We go for coffee
now we're friends
not long ago we were loverswe keep it light the time is tight
we keep the topic
set on others
until I ask about your new fling you don't tell me anythingyou ask me back I change the track
my newfound tat
is a work in progress
no time is wasted
when you're waking up slowlyI can't place it but I've tasted being lonely with you gently on my mind
only afterwards
it's good where we are
it's a nice distance apartfor observation if you rewind time
you will find
the many signs
that led to the situation people growand sometimes at different paces I didn't think so but look at how big that space is between us
no time is wastedwhen you're waking up slowly I can't place it
but I've tasted being lonely
only afterwardsno time is wasted when you're waking up slowly I can't place it
but I've tasted being lonely
only afterwards
