

Jack and Jill

Goodbye Elliott

Your real,
And I cant be something I'm not forgot what happened to myself,
For a second there,
For a second dear.

Yeah your real,
And I cant believe you forgot, thatâ€™s not what happens to someone,
When they really care, when they really care.

Its been rough
And its enough to take your picture off the wall,
Take my mind off you'll call,
This frowns not ordinary,
Yeah its been rough
But I'll hang tough,
And though i set up for the fall, it still hurts to go
Down down down down,
That's all I need
Is a broken crown.

And whatâ€™s real,
If the only dream you haves lost, in cost of giving up yourself,
For a selfish fear,
Or a selfish prayer.

So tumble after me baby,

So, so long
Cause I cant be something I'm not forgot what happened to myself,
For a second there,
For a second dear.
For a second there,
I could smell your fear.

Its been rough
And its enough to take your picture off the wall,
Take my mind off you'll call,
This frowns not ordinary,
Yeah its been rough
But I'll hang tough,

And though i set up for the fall, it still hurts to go
Down down down down,

Do do do do do do do
