

Blow Me Away

Corey Smith

I'm a solid rock
A chip off a mountaintop
Finely chiseled by the wind and rain
I work out in the storms
Keeps me in fightin' form
No I won't back down from anything But you're like a stick of dynamite
And I'm gonna light your fuse tonight
Get ready for a firework show Chorus: You blow me away
You blow me away I'm a cold-blooded cynic
I'm a stone-faced critic
Seems like nothing's worth a double take
Yeah I'm open minded
But I've been color blinded
Fed up and jaded by the hit parade But baby you're a work of art
And I've tried pickin' you apart
But I can't, you simply bowl me over Chorus: You blow me away
You blow me away I'm a shaky leaf upon a sycamore tree
Hanging high but barely holding on
I've been catchin' rays, I've been makin' shade
Holding a shingle when the rains got strong But I feel autumn settin' in
The green is fadin' from my skin
And oh its gonna be a long way down Chorus: You blow me away
You blow me away
You blow me away
You blow me away
You still blow me away
You still blow me away I've been a solid rock
I've been a cold-blooded cynic
I'm a shaky leaf
But you still blow me away
You still blow me away
