I Believe In You

Janie Fricke

Some folks get religion, some folks live on dreams
The ones who live for money find out that's not what life means
Everybody must have something to believe their whole life through
And I believe in you

You're the right time, you're my lifeline
You're the road to paradise
And when you wrap your arms around me
Oh, you make me feel so nice
You are everything that's beautiful, you are everything that's true
And I believe in you

I've heard it said that some folks think the world is gonna end
And there are some who'll spend their lifelong dreams
On something shifting in the wind
Well, people choose such crazy things to put their faith into
But I believe in you

You're the starshine in the night time
There is heaven in your eyes
And when you wrap your arms around me
Oh, you make me feel so nice
You are everything that's beautiful, you are everything that's true
And I believe in you

You are everything that's beautiful, you are everything that's true
And I believe in you
