Cry

Psordid

I don't contemplate what you said to me in a thought
Turn your gun on me, after all you said: I was wrong
Who do you think you are, strong and silent type, hypocrite
Pessimistic thoughts, do you think you will maim mine?

Cry

Enemy and foe, that's all you are worthy of
When I see you there, do you think you will be able to Wrecker of the mind, oh so canny
Do you think in your current state you will maim mine?

I won't be strayed by your insulting mind
Do what you want, leave me behind

You say you want to believe
But you never understood the reason why
The passion, the pain
It has always driven me insane

And as I see you there
With your pessimistic stare
Know that I won't
Know I won't cry
