

So So LaLa

Strange Talk

Yesterday I heard you talking
Through the door I heard it all
But you didn't even have a clue
Now I know what you've been hiding
What goes around come back to you All these times you've been faking
Won't you tell me what is all about
If only I could read your mind
You can tell we can work it out
Now I'm done keep on walking
'cause you know I had it all before
Everything you've been saying
You sound it like you did before So so la la
I couldn't figure out a word you say
So so la la
I couldn't figure out a word you say
So so la la I found a trace in a paper
Black and white for me to see
But I never really had it done
It's too late for all these talking
'cause I can't hear you anyway All these times you been faking
Won't you tell me what is all about
If only I could read your mind
You can tell we can work it out
Now I'm done keep on walking
'cause you know I heard it all before
Everything you've been saying
You sound it like you did before So so la la
I couldn't figure out a word you say
So so la la
I couldn't figure out a word you say
So so la la
