Heartless

Milo Greene

Can only manage when we're divided
Could not accept such an awful taste
Feels like you're always misguided
Talking out loud with nothing new to sayAnd if we say I am trying to get over it (over it)
In the meantime can we try to move on?Lately you're heartless
You're so heartless
Lately you're heartless
You're so heartless
Now you're looking down
I'm looking down now with nothing to say
Lately you're heartless
You're so heartless
You're heartless
You're heartlessSome strange manner the way you're behaving
Always looked like something I'd lose
Fade in the light that stays so idle
Turning in now nothing left renewed
