

Bridges in the Sky

Dream Theater

Blackness awakens
Visions come alive
Seeing through darkness
With borrowed eyes Death survivor
Take me higher
Reunite my soul Whisperer of truth
I trust in you
To make me whole Sun
Come shine my way
May healing waters bury all my pain Wind
Carry me home
The fabric of reality is tearing apart
The piece of me that died
Will return
To live again Feeling myself slip away
Suddenly dreaming awake
Hidden memories
Flooding back I will not grow in the light
Until I pass through the darkest caverns of my heart Dance with fire
Spirit guide erase the world outside Messenger of truth
I trust in you
Transform me now Sun
Come shine my way
May healing waters bury all my pain Wind
Carry me home
The fabric of reality is tearing apart
The piece of me that died
Will return
To live again And at last the time has come
To unite again as one
