

Weird Love

Chad VanGalen

Raised from seed,
I feel it when I'm breathing
I love to see you swimming in the wind
Distracted mind is looking for a reason
So baby let your hair hang downOoooh weird love
Cross-hatched dreams where the plants are all talking
Ooooh weird love
The best it gets is when life starts screaming
Ooooh....Ooooh weird love
Cross-hatched dreams where the plants are all talking
Ooooh weird love
The best it gets is when life starts screamingEvery day you take a different shape
I wonder how you look when you're undone
Your dirty hands, you wipe them on your pants
And throw your broken fingers at the sun
Yeah you tell me that you do it just for fun
