Song 54

Destiny Church

Song 54

Cosâ€™ your bringing things back to life
Your bringing things back to life that once where dead
Your bringing things back to life that once where dead Lord
Your bringing things back to life that once where dead Lord
Your bringing things back to life

Stretch out your stakes
Stand in faith
Our God is great and greatly to be praised
And mountains shake
Let the dead awake
His name is Yah-Hallelujah
Hallelujah

Sing oh Barren sing
Rise without fear and dance again
Speak to the dreams
That seem to die
Prophecy and bring them back to life

Open the gates
Gods enlarging this place
Lift up your hands
Let the King of Glory in

Every chain break
Make the crooked place straight
Let God arise
Let God arise
Let God arise

Sing oh Barren sing
Rise without fear and dance again
Speak to the dreams
That seem to die
Prophecy and bring them back to life

(Oh, bring them back to life Lord

We believe You can do it know)

All of us in this place
Stand united in faith
Weâ€™re not by chance
Weâ€™re apart of heavens plans

All of us in this place
Stand united in faith
Weâ€™re not by chance
Weâ€™re apart of heavens plans

(Here we go)

If God is for us
Who can win against us
His name is Yah-Hallelujah
Hallelujah

(Wont you)
Sing oh Barren sing
Rise without fear
And dance again

Speak to the dreams
That seem to die
Prophecy
And bring them back to life

Let God Arise (sing it out)
Let God Arise
Let God Arise (we believe it Lord)
Let God Arise
Let God Arise (Oh Yeah)
Let God Arise
Let God Arise
Let God Arise
Let God Arise (Oh)

Rise up with the Lord, let your enemy be scattered
