

Where There Was Darkness

Diana Ross

Where there was darkness
You came and now there's
An abundance of lightNothing but sinkin' sand
Suddenly I reach out
There's your handWhat a feeling it is to know
You're in my corner and you won't let me go
And now I know that I won't be alone no moreI'll give you all I have
And if you teach me
I'll learn to give you moreYou are my anchor now
And like a ship at sea, ooh
Your love will steady meWhat a feeling it is to know
You're in my corner and you won't let me go
And now I know that I won't be alone no moreI'm so glad
Just wanna thank you, babyWhat a feeling it is to know
You're in my corner and you won't let me goWhat a feeling it is to know
You're in my corner and you won't let me goWhat a feeling it is to know
You're in my corner and you won't let me go
Thank you, babyWhat a feeling it is to know
You're in my corner and you won't let me go
