

Back On Me

Electric Guest

When I take you down
I don't wanna take you down
Don't ask why I never been there
'Cause I don't know, oh no If I close my eyes
I don't wanna close my eyes
There are dreams of phantom doorways
There were dreams of you and me Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me Will you drag me down
Will you see just who I am
Don't have much and never will have
But I got dreams yeah, yeah Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
