

Toast Of The Town

Pretty Boy Floyd

One two, one two three
Hey hey hey, hey kid, the whole house is shakin'
We got the time, right in our sights
Hey hey hey, hey kid, the world's gone crazy
But you know it won't last too long
You know it won't last too long
You know it won't last too long
You know it won't last too long
Hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Well hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Hey hey hey, hey kid, what's it gonna get you
Screaming through the hours of the night
Hey hey hey, hey kid, the world's gone crazy
But you know it won't last too long
You know it won't last too long
You know it won't last too long
You know it won't last too long
Hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Well hey kid, you're the toast of the town
You heard me sayin', baby don't be a fool
I got news for you
Well pack your things, baby don't be a fool
Before it crashes down on you
Down on you
Down on you
Down on you
Come on
Well hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Well hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Well hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Well hey kid, you're the toast of the town
Well hey kid
