

Unrest

Douglas Dare

I saw you holding hands with the moon
Scented fingers fill the room
It's making me thin
All this pulling you in
It tears me apart
And I'm back to the start I can't rest
I can't rest
I can't rest
Knowing this
I can't rest Mouths that open up to me
Speak with pearls of wisdom teeth
The seraphin know your sins
And they impart to my human heart I am blessed
In this unrest
I am blessed
In this unrest Oh...I saw you holding hands with the moon
Left feeling empty
My cold and barren womb
that makes me thin
with every spin as we revolve
There's no resolve I am blessed
In this unrest
I am blessed
In this unrest
In unrest
