

Goodbye Vibrations

Bill Baird

goodbye
my darling
i'm headed west tomorrow to follow the glowing sky your tender arms tried so hard to squeeze my restless soul
but it won't budge by your pleas I know you say a memory can't hold you but in the end we're all memories anyway so hold me today and let tomorrow be the time to cry goodbye, my love
so long, my darling
so long
i'll carry your vibration as I travel on
when we were together
we shone like the sun
but you always I had to leave and that this day would come I can't say if my love will linger a fire left alone will die away but I won't forget the warmth of this flame of you and I
