7 Years

Blood Red Shoes

If there was no tomorrow
would you still remain the same or live your life, so shallow and take it for granted everyday So take away tomorrow and tell me again why we blame why we waste all our time with bullshit and pride time may not wait another day oooh... oooh
So again, years grow back so many tears I cried now that we're through I'll still honor you and harmlessly swallow my pride its time to fall away
Its time to separate
And maybe we'll be alright
Its time to fall away, and baby
maybe we'll be alright
Life is but the memories we've created
For all those too, remember you and celebrate our life If all that we are is all that we've been these bridges were built in vain can we get to that place with dignity and grace and live with all that remains

Its time to separate
Life is but the memories we've created
For all those too, remember you and celebrate our life
Life is but the memories we've created
Its time to fall away
It's time to separate... and fly

7 Years gone by!
For 7 years i've tried to make it
but how long can I take it It's time to fly
7 Years gone by!
If there was no tomorrow
Would you still retain all your hate or live your life with no one to spite and free your spirit again
Its time to separate
For 7 years i've tried to make it
7 Years gone by!
