Surreal

John O'Callaghan

if you dream like i dream right now don't wake up, no don't wake up again it gets more surreal so if you seem to be dreaming now don't wake up, no don't wake up it gets more surreal that this because you tend to dissapear when you die there's nothing but air in your sky i want you to stop and start starting like me it's just your always dancing to see, to say, before you sleep again it's just air in your sky i said it's nothing but air in your sky so if your angels believe in this you didn't die, did you quit?

'cause when you die you just disappear there's no heaven here and you don't wake up
don't wake up
just disappear
