

Second to Last

Devin Dawson

You want me to be your fast car
You want me to get the gas
You want me everywhere
But no where near your heart You don't want me to say I love you
You dont want me to meet your dad
You keepin' me under covers
You want me in the dark Call me a stepping stone
Call me a fast track
Call me whatever you want
It ain't gonna make me mad, no Everybody got a future
And everybody got a past
We both know, what I am
Yeah girl, I'll be your second to last
You can let him be the good guy
And Honey I can be the bad
We both know, who I am
Yeah girl, I'll be your second to last Baby girl, I'll be your second to last
When you gotta go
You know you don't need to ask
You can even look back, I'm okay with that Girl, I'll be your second to last You might not know his number
You might not know his name
But I bet he's just 'round the corner
And I know that when you'll meet, yeah He'll be on his best behavior
He won't be playing no games, no
So let's do him a favor
You can play your last on me
We got a good thing, going you, me and him
And when it's set and done
It's gonna be a win win win, yeah Everybody got a future
And everybody got a past
We both know, what I am
Yeah girl, I'll be your second to last You can let him be the good guy
And honey I can be the bad
We both know, who I am
Yeah girl, I'll be your second to last (Imma be making it last all night baby, imma be second to last, yeah its all right all all right but baby imma imma imma but baby imma imma be) You can let him be the closer
I can be the setup man

It's my lost, but it's a cold fact that Girl, I'll be your second to last You can let him have a glowin'
And I'll be watching from the stands
It's alright, I ain't mad
Yeah girl, I'll be your second to last Baby girl, I'll be your second to last
When you gotta go
You know you don't need to ask
You can even look back, I'm okay with that
Girl, I'll be your Second to last Second to last, Alright
