

Money

Serj Tankian

Money, all for money
Make your money, hide your money
Stuff your money, hump your money
Save your money, all for money
Waning patience, people's appetite
Disposition this possession
Dispossessed from all the attractions
Dancing bears of eroticism
Self absorbed delusion
Inclusion of dysfunction
I now await the triumphant
Lost baggage, train station
The causes of ineptitude
Can be traced to my mandatory noun
The causes of my servitude
Can be traced to the tyranny of
Money, all for money
Make your money, hide your money
Stuff your money, hump your money
Save your money, all for money
My final surrender
Away from inclusion
I now await the triumphant
Left baggage, train station
The causes of ineptitude
Can be traced to my mandatory noun
The causes of my servitude
Can be traced to the tyranny of a noun
The causes of ineptitude
Can be traced to my mandatory noun
The causes of my servitude
Can be traced to the tyranny of
Money, all for money
Make your money, hide your money
Stuff your money, hump your money
Save your money, make your money, hide your money
All for money
Make your money, hide your money
Stuff your money, hump your money

Save your money, all for money
