Money

Serj Tankian

Money, all for money Make your money, hide your money Stuff your money, hump your money Save your money, all for money Waning patience, people's appetite Disposition this possession Dispossessed from all the attractions Dancing bears of eroticism Self absorbed delusion Inclusion of dysfunction I now await the triumphant Lost baggage, train station The causes of ineptitude Can be traced to my mandatory noun The causes of my servitude Can be traced to the tyranny of Money, all for money Make your money, hide your money Stuff your money, hump your money Save your money, all for money My final surrender Away from inclusion I now await the triumphant Left baggage, train station The causes of ineptitude Can be traced to my mandatory noun The causes of my servitude Can be traced to the tyranny of a noun The causes of ineptitude Can be traced to my mandatory noun The causes of my servitude Can be traced to the tyranny of Money, all for money Make your money, hide your money Stuff your money, hump your money Save your money, make your money, hide your money All for money Make your money, hide your money Stuff your money, hump your money

Save your money, all for money
