

Mission: Impossible

The Spelding's Jazz Orchestra

Alone I stand, here I stand waiting
Dreams of me erasing
All the false words that you spoke
Alone I stand, here I stand waiting
Dreams of me erasing
All the false fucking words
Regret filled nights finally end
Sleepless nights they finally end
I'm not forgiving you
I will never ever forgive you
Reality is setting in
It's your mistakes that brought you here
The things you said, they brought me to my knees
The truth, it hurts so fucking much
But it hurts so much more in the end
Where I am left
It hurts so much more in the end
Where I am left
So let's keep this bond
As a reminder
A reminder of all the things
We fucking had
Feeling no sympathy, feeling no remorse
Feeling no sympathy, feeling no fucking remorse
Feeling no sympathy, feeling no remorse
Feeling no sympathy, feeling no remorse
