Key To My Heart

Craig David

It's how we do it one time blowin' my mind
Please don't you decline, ain't lyin', baby, be mine
It's how we do it one time blowin' my mind
Please don't you decline, ain't lyin', baby, be mine
It's how we do it one time blowin' my mind
Please don't you decline, ain't lyin', baby, be mine
Craig David, Kwaume Paul, it's another one, it's your call, yeahLonely hours, lonely days
Never meant to drive you away from me, yeah
I should have listened to you, lady
And what you had to say to if only, yeahI never knew how much you feel for somebody
After you've let them go, let them go
And you find out that it's to late
To let your feelings show, feelings show
And even though I've done you so wrong
Don't you know like I know, baby?You see you've got the key to my heart
Girl, unlock me and take all my feelings apart
'Cos when you said you had to leave
Had to go away, you closed the door on me, yeah
You threw away the keyStartin' over I'm feeling down
Still can't believe that you're not around
I should have been there for you, baby
But now I'm crying on this melody tonight, yeahI didn't realize that there's no other remedy
To numb this pain, numb this pain
But if you come back in my life
Then maybe I can start to live again, live again
And even though your being so strong
Don't you know like I know, baby?You see you've got the key to my heart
Girl, unlock me and take all my feelings apart
'Cos when you said you had to leave
Had to go away, you closed the door on me, yeah
You threw away the keyAnd every day and night
I'm thinkin' 'bout you constantly
Now I know for sure how much you really mean to me, yeah
Sometimes I get a rush
And I see how we were meant to be, ladyYou see you've got the key to my heart
Girl, unlock me and take all my feelings apart
'Cos when you said you had to leave
Had to go away, you closed the door on meYou see you've got the key to my heart
Girl, unlock me and take all my feelings apart

'Cos when you said you had to leave
Had to go away, you closed the door on me, yeah
You threw away the keyIt's how we do it one time blowin' my mind
Please don't you decline, ain't lyin', baby, be mine
It's how we do it one time blowin' my mind
Please don't you decline, ain't lyin', baby, be mine
It's how we do it one time blowin' my mind
Please don't you decline, ain't lyin', baby, be mine
Craig David, Kwaume Paul
It's another one for all of y'all
