

Stuck in the Middle

Don Brownrigg

slow down let the feeling pass make a second last
to deny the future the past is to throw away the map and ignore the tracks a moment's mortal creature breaks the hour glass stuck in the middle and i lost my map

to mention is to last tension is a cast
sense, in its present tense clear and steadfast
so slow down, as if youâ€™re asked rise above your mass
to be not your future
to be not your past

within regalement
iâ€™ll find a regal ideal if there's a reason here to find in this moment of mine thereâ€™s a reason here to get
if i'm not dead yet
