I Used To Worry (Duet With Francine Reed)

Delbert McClinton

Well, I used to worry where all my money had gone
'Til I wound up with nothin' to spend my money on
I used to guard my time like diamonds and pearls
'Til I wound up with nothing but all the time in the worldJust to think I used to worry about things like that
I used to worry 'bout rich and skinny 'til I would up poor and fat
Now days I kind of worry where my mind's been at Just to think I used to worry about things like thatI used to worry about making the grade
Hanging out with the right people and playing their games
I'd throw a party, they'd be wall to wall
But in a lonely minute, I had no one to callJust to think I
Just to think I used to worry
Just to think I used to worry about things like thatJust to think I used to worry about things like that
I used to worry 'bout rich and skinny 'til I wound up poor and fat
Some times I kind of wonder where my mind's been at
Just to think I used to worry about things like thatJust to think I used to worry about things like that
Just to think I used to worry about things like that
