

Save Yourself, I'll Hold Them Back

My Chemical Romance

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I hope you're ready for a firefight
'Cause the devil's got your number tonight, they say
We're never leaving this place alive
But if we sing these words we'll never die
Get off the ledge and drop the knife
Not a victim of a victim's life
Because this ain't a room full of suicides
We're believers, I believe tonight
We could leave this world, leave it all behind
We could steal this car if your folks don't mind
We could live forever if you've got the time
If you save yourself tonight
If you save yourself tonight
I'll tell you all how the story ends
Where the good guys die and the bad guys win, who cares?
It ain't about all the friends you've made
But the graffiti they write on your grave
And all of us who've seen the light
Salute the dead and lead the fight, oh hell
Who gives a damn if we lose the war
Let the walls come down, let the engines roar
We could leave this world, leave it all behind
We could steal this car if your folks don't mind
We could live forever if you've got the time
I'm the only friend that makes you cry
You're a heart attack in black hair dye
So just save yourself and I'll hold them back tonight
Are y'all ready where you are?
If you save yourself tonight
'Cause they're coming for you
Can you save yourself tonight?
Right now, cannot hold them back
We could leave this world, leave it all behind
We could steal this car if your folks don't mind
We could live forever if you've got the time
You motherfucker
Through the broken glass and the morning light
Be a burning star if it takes all night
So just save yourself and I'll hold them back tonight
If you save yourself tonight
Can you save yourself tonight?
