

Think Of Me

Stan Walker

Sitting here alone in this empty room
With memories of us still on the wall
They all tell a story of what we used to do
Up until the day that you were gone
And there's something that I'm dying to let you know
I regret the day that I ever let you go
So if you're with somebody else
While I'm here all by myself
And he's not the one, you got it wrong
Just think of me, oh, think of me
If you're lying in his bed
But it's me that's in your head
Then there's still a chance I can be your man
Just think of me, baby, just think of me
Tell me what to do to make it up to you
'Cause I don't know a way to turn back time
I am just a man that's so in love with you
But girl I'll get it right with one more try
Is there still a part of you that wants to know
I've been hurting since the day that I let you go
So if you're with somebody else
While I'm here all by myself
And he's not the one, you got it wrong
Just think of me, oh, think of me
If you're lying in his bed
But it's me that's in your head
Then there's still a chance I can be your man
Just think of me, baby, just think of me
Do you think of me at night when I'm not by your side
Am I stopping you from falling asleep?
In the morning when you wake up
Am I who you dreamed of?
Tell me, are you thinking of me?
So if you're with somebody else
While I'm here all by myself
And he's not the one, you got it wrong
Just think of me, oh, think of me
If you're lying in his bed
But it's me that's in your head
There's still a chance I can be your man
Just think of me, think of me
All you gotta do is think of me, baby
