

I Envy You

24 HOURS

I envy you, who go out with your friendsHave a couple of beers, and talk about the yearsCause I show up and drink way to muchAnd its just not enough to fill this hole in my gutI do I wish I was youI envy you, who smoke a little weedSit around talking, about nothingCause I show up and smoke way to muchAnd your pots not enough to fill this hole in my gutI do I wish I was youIve been sitting waiting for this all of my lifeAfter all this time there is no where to hideAnd I can run but now I finally get itAfter all this time I'm just an addict.
