

Anything But Goodbye

Sway Penala

Why you smiling?
Like in a minute, we'll be crying
Hide those sad eyes and find me the ones that say you're in love in love Whatcha saying?
Is there something I've been doing?
Now don't you say another word cause I don't wanna hear what I just heard from you heard from you

Tell me let's run away and get married in Vegas
Say you need a break, you'll be back Tuesday night
Tell me I've lost it all, my house, car, my money
Tell me anything
Anything But Goodbye

So let's say you wanna tell me
'bout some crazy plans you made Got a dream that you've been saving but you want it for today
Baby that's ok, cause I'm a dreamer anyway
But mine won't work if you don't stay

Tell me let's run away and get married in Vegas
Say you need a break, you'll be back Tuesday night
Tell me I've lost it all, my house, car, my money
Tell me anything
Anything But Goodbye

Now the rain is fallling
Will you listen to it now
It will tell you all the things my tears are tryin' to say out loud
Now all I need is about to leave Lord I pray that you might see what you're gonna do to me what you're gonna do to me ooh
Say anything but goodbye

Tell me let's run away and get married in Vegas
Say you need a break, you'll be back Tuesday night
Tell me I've lost it all, my house, car, my money
Baby please say anything

Anything But Goodbye
Lalalala.. letâ€™s run away
Letâ€™s run away
Lalalala.. letâ€™s run away
Letâ€™s run away
Lalalala.. La Hey
