Favorite Song

O.A.R.

Here's my attempt to describe
How you make me feel so alive
I'll break it down one time
So listen line by lineListen line by line
Listen line by lineYou're my Stairway to Heaven, you're Freddy Mercury
You've got a License to Ill, and girl it worked for me
You're Johnny Cash singing to a penitentiary
You're Graceland, The Band, and Petty falling freeYou're Stir it Up, yeah you're Jamming, you're my Redemption Song
I'm Knocking on Heaven's Door and you're Forever Young
I'm just a kid in the stand waiting for the show
I clap my hands'Cause you're my favorite song
I just wanna sing along
And it goes like thisWell It's a Beautiful Day and we were Born to Run
I might have 99 Problems but you were never one
I'm hearing Yellow this Mellow Mood is all around
You're London Calling, The Clash, and I Won't Back DownI Imagine the Blackbird is flying high
So Let it Be, i can feel it coming In the Air Tonight
I'm just a kid with my headphones up to ten
Play it againYou're my favorite song
I just wanna sing along
You're my favorite song
I just wanna sing along
Yeah, it goes like thisYou're my Fire and Rain, you're Rolling in the Deep
You're State of Mind's in the city that really never sleeps
A bad mama, no drama, you're Mary J to me
You're my Mariah with notes higher than anythingBut you were here, the Tears in Heaven don't know why
I didn't come any sooner you're Wonderful Tonight
So I'll just stand 'til the band plays an encore
Give me some moreYou're my favorite song
I just wanna sing along
You're my favorite song
I just wanna sing alongOh, ooh whoa, you're my favorite song
My favorite songYou're my favorite song
