

Never Have to Be Alone

CeCe Winans

Waking up
Another heavy hearts and burdens I can't bear
Does any body care?
Seeing more of what I'm missing less
Or what I have to share miles away
From what I need and yet so close
When I'm in prayer That's when I close my eyes
Take sometime and realize
That he was always there
Truth is he never left
That is what the spirit says
And I believe it so
I never have to be alone Waking up
Another cross today
The weight's are a lot this time
So much is on my mind
Lonely heart
Don't desert the one
You know will love you best
Open up so he can breath again
And put the storms to rest That's when I close my eyes
Take sometime and realize
That he was always there
Truth is he never left
That is what the spirit says
And I believe it so
I never have to be alone Lonely heart
Don't desert the one
You know will love you best
Open up so he can breath again
And put the storms to rest That's when I close my eyes
Take sometime and realize
That he was always there
Truth is he never left
That is what the spirit says
And I believe it so
I never have to be alone Never have to be alone
