

I Appear Missing (UNKLE Remix)

Queens of the Stone Age

Calling all comas,
Prisoner on the loose
Description:
A spitting image of me
Except for a heart-shaped hole where the hope runs out Shock me awake
Tear me apart
Pinned like a note in a hospital gown
Prison of sleep
Deepened now
A rabbit hole never to be found
Again Where are you hiding, my love?
Cast off like a stone
Feelings, raw and exposed when I'm out of control
Pieces were stolen from me
But dare I say, given away
Watching the water give in
As I go down the drain
I appear missing now I go missing,
No longer exist
One day I hope
I'm someone you'd met Shock me awake
Tear me apart
Pinned like a note in a hospital gown
Deeper I sleep
Further down
A rabbit hole never to be found It's only falling in love
Because you hit the ground Dancing on wire both ends are on fire
Cut me loose
Nowhere to run, no more room to pretend
Wandering along the road in the summer night I go missing,
No longer exist
One day I hope
I'm someone you'd met Shock me awake
Tear me apart
Pinned like a note in a hospital gown
Deeper I sleep
Further down
A rabbit hole never to be found Don't cry
With my toes on the edge it's such a lovely view

Inside
I never loved anything until I loved you
Inside
I'm over the edge, what can I do?
Inside
I never loved anything until I loved youDon't cry
With my toes on the edge it's such a lovely view
Inside
I never loved anything until I loved you
Inside
I'm over the edge, what can I do?
InsideI've fallen through
