Ordinary Day

PFR

Have you always been the same my friend
You don't have to be alone and lonely my friend
Will you always be the same my friend?
I'm wondering, I wonder will you seeOn this, an ordinary day
There's an extraordinary Savior
Waiting, wanting you to know Him
On this, an ordinary dayDo you even recognize your need
How can you build an argument from nothing my friend
Can you feel Him plant the seed my friend?
Its happening, I wonder will you seeOn this, an ordinary day
There's an extraordinary Savior
Waiting, wanting you to know Him
On this, an ordinary dayCreation's author waits for
You who happened to need Him
More than He needs you
On this, an ordinary dayIt was an ordinary day
When He died once for all
And He'll still be the sameOn this, an ordinary day
Creation's author waits for
You who happened to need Him
More than He needs youOn this, an ordinary day
There's an extraordinary Savior
Waiting, wanting you to know Him
On this, an ordinary dayAn ordinary day
