I can't tell
How's this shit all my fault?
It's a department I fill
But they should
And I send commands
Just because I can
Oh, I can just imagine
The difference it has
Straight out of your mind
You see, I'm well aware
You're out of your mind
It's straight
I said your name
It slipped off my tongue
Pointed at the camera
Laughing at you
Once again
You see, no one cares
It's how you wear it
Not what it is
Straight out of your mind
You see, I'm well aware
You're out of your mind
Straight out
I can't tell
How's this shit not your fault?
Bitch, you're barbaric
King Kong, get some
Switching command
Just because I can
I'd like to see you wear it
Why can't I stare?
Switching command
Just because I can
And if I let my guard down
Who knows what then?
Once again
Just because I can
Just because I can
