The power

Vanessa Amorosi

Mother Mary, Mother Mary
(I want the power, I want the power, I want the power)
(I want the power, I want the power, I want the power)Mother Mary, please answer my prayers
I want to run free and I need you to be there
I'm going to take some chances I never took before
I've got to live my life and I'm going to risk it allI look to the sky and suddenly I know
I've made up my mind, I'm never letting goIt's the power I want, it's the power I need
To make me run, to make me see for real
It's the power I want, to let me do what I feel
To make me run, to make me be for realUnlike a miracle or a wish upon a star
The power to be me is all I need to start
To do things I'll never regret
And to leave the rest behindIt's the power I want, it's the power I need
To make me run, to make me see for real
It's the power I want, to let me do what I feel
To make me run, to make me be for real
It's the power I want, it's the power I need
To make me run, to make me see for real
It's the power I want, to let me do what I feel
To make me run, to make me be for realYou're the one to only help me
The only one, so help me, help me
Give it to me, to me, to me
Oh Mother Mary, please, please, please
Please just help and watch me shine
Then watch the power make me fly awayMother Mary, Mother Mary
It's the power I want, it's the power I need
To make me run, to make me see for real
It's the power I want, to let me do what I feel
To make me run, to make me be for realIt's the power I want, it's the power I need
(I want the power, I want the power, I want the power)
To make me run, to make me see for real
(I want the power, I want the power, I want the power)
It's the power I want, to let me do what I feel
(I want the power, I want the power, I want the power)
To make me run, to make me be for real
(I want the power, I want the power, I want the power)
