

Fadeback

Fitz & The Tantrums

I just want you to fade back into me
I just need you to fade backStatic room, me and you
I feel the frequency (?)
You play along, when we kiss
But I can't read your lips, whoaIt feels just like your heart ain't, your heart ain't in it
Wish that I could just stop the universe from spinningI just want you to fade back into me
I just need you to fade back
(Just fade back into me)
I just want you to fade back into me
I just need you to fade back
(Just fade back into me)
(Just fade back into me)Reckless heart, miles apart
The axis turns and if flips
Magnetic pulse, lovely ghost
Do I go down with this ship? (woah)It feels just like your heart ain't, your heart ain't in it
Wish that I could just stop the universe from spinningI just want you to fade back into me
I just need you to fade back
(Just fade back into me)
I just want you to fade back into me
I just need you to fade back
(Just fade back into me)
(Just fade back into me)Just fade back into me
Just fade back into meYeah we're coming to the parking lot
You can pull away but I, I just can't stop it
Try my best to feed, feed your soul
But the story's told, and I just can't stop itIt feels just like your heart ain't, your heart ain't in it
Wish that I could just stop the universe from spinningI just want you to fade back into me
I just need you to fade back
(Just fade back into me)
I just want you to fade back into me
I just need you to fade back
(Just fade back into me)
(Just fade back into me)(Just fade back into me)
(Just fade back into me)
(Just fade back into me)
(Just fade back into me)
