

Knock Knock

Band of Horses

Better things come to those who wait
Then appearance left for all too late
Greatness achieved, and darkness defeated
And the truck blew up believe it
You see me go, there's something coming your way
Everything I want, and everything I need
So say it to me, say it to my face
There's no time to be reserved or safe
Call just chill, whenever
Glory till the end
Everything I want, and everything I'll get
It's coming now, It's going down
The stars are falling, walls are coming all of hour
Knocking on the doorway, look who's coming your way
Everything I want, everything I need
Knocking on the door
Knocking on the door
Knocking on the door
Knocking on the door
Ooh ooh, ooh ooh
No one's gonna know it
The right ones are green á1-roving wrong the other one's winning
We're fine, when I'll win
Look what's in the doorway
There's something coming your way
Everything I want, everything I need
Knocking on the doorway,
Hey look what's coming your way
It's everything I want, It's everything I need
Knocking on the door
Knocking on the door
Knocking on the door
Knocking on the door
Knocking on the door
Knocking on the door
Knocking on the door
Knocking on the door
Knocking on the door, ooh ooh, ooh ooh
