

The Island

Timothy B. Schmit

I had to get away, so I came to the Island.
I just couldn't stay, now I'm here on the Island.
Nothing to do, but stare at the Palm trees
Kick off my shoes and feel that tropical breeze I feel so fine now that I'm on the Island
There's no freeway in sight on this beautiful Island
I'm mesmerized feeling so weightless
I could just cry this is real success Why should I leave when it's so crystal clear
One look in my eyes you can see that I should stay right here. Come grab a drink such a wonderful potion
It's just what I need after a swim in the ocean
Sunset deluxe is what I live for Moonlight above will shine its light on the shore Why should I leave when it's so crystal clear
One look in my eyes and you can see that a I should stay right here.... What's that I see another perfect rainbow
So come stay with me we'll listen to the trade wind flow Breathe in breathe out and take the time to... cosmically shall and island gratitude Ahhhhhhhhhh, Ahhhhhhhhhhh, Ahhhhhhhhhh, Ahhhhhhhhhhh.
