Shyest Kindred Spirit

Piqued Jacks

My wooden ring has a crack
Honestly I believe in coincidence
Or do you call it chance?I swear I don't invade
Our kiss, that first memory with hatredI wish for you a daydream
I wish you joy, show it proudlyMy wooden ring has a crack
Honey it's bleeding, you're the evidence
A sort of vengeanceSorry I gotta run away
I clam up, words get sharp when I feel betrayed
I wish for you a daydream
I wish you joy, show it proudly
For the time ahead remaining
I wish for you a boy to vow with'Til death tears you apart
And turns you to dust
In a reincarnation of some other life
Maybe you'll be mineI wish for you a daydream
I wish you joy, show it proudly
For the time ahead remaining
I wish for you a boy to vow withAnd to do it use your eyes
They don't get older
Your eyes
I remember
Your eyes
Maybe you'll be a tiger
And I'll be the shyest
Kindred spirit
Maybe I'll be the shyest
And you'll be a tiger
Hunting me, craving me, chasing me downTo the boundary where the pure ones meet
To the shore where we can finally sleep
To the boundary where the jungle turns to beach
To the shore where we're gonna be unseen
