

1997, Passing in the Hallway

Martha

We met when we were seven/
Now we're both in year eleven and it scares me that you act like it's a joke/
When they tell you off for smoking/
It's tearing me apart/
So I just drew your name inside a heart.

Maureen/
School is totally boring/
These GCSEs really get to me/
I long for your company/
And I think it's/high time/
We took a walk by the riverside/
We can sit near the daffodils/
While we've got some time to kill/
It's true that I've been so anaemic/
Since you broke my double-helix and my heart.

Well I might be a reject/
But to tell the truth you're scarier than a prefect/
When we're passing in the hallway/
And you catch me looking your way/
It's certifiably verified/
That I'm completely terrified by Maureen...

I know you're in detention/
But I promise that I'm worthy of your attention after school/
There's a park across the street/
I'd really love it if you'd meet me/
We can share some pop while we revise/
See algebra in each other's eyes/
I promise you I'm worth the wait/
This textbook's barely annotated.
