

Mexico (Ft. Shirazi)

Afrojack

Suitcase packed no letters and away I go
Flames blow away our memories up in smoke
And now it's time
For miles and miles
And I'll be going until I just run out of road
If you are looking for me
I'll be in the land of the free
Nobody there is guilty
By the time you know
That your love's gone
I'll be down down down down

In Mexico
Suitcase packed no letters and away I go
Flames blow away our memories up in smoke
And now it's time
For miles and miles
And I'll be going until I just run out of road
If you are looking for me
I'll be in the land of the free
Nobody there is guilty
By the time you know
That your love's gone
I'll be down down down down
In Mexico
