Got To Let Go lyrics

You say you fallen in love and cant let go
Theres only one thing I think you should know
Youve got to be strong when the cold as the day
Got to realize when theres nothing left to say
Good things come and go
One day you will know
Youve got to let go, yeah youve got to let go
Yeah youve got to let go
When your night feels longer than the day Just dont feel like keeping on, anymore
Got to make up your mind
Our wounds heal in time
Youve got to let go, yeah youve got to let go
Yeah youve got to let go X 2
Its a deadly revolver, its a deadly revolver
Its a deadly revolver to your head X4
