Back on My Feet Again

The Foundations

I was so lonely until I met you
Told myself I'd get by without love
Drownin' my sorrows, avoiding tomorrows
Kind of felt that I just had enoughYou light up my face with your jokes and your smiles
And the way that you came here tonight
Don't know what you got but I'm sure glad I found you
Could be wrong but it sure feels rightAnd here I am
I'm back on my feet again
Here I am
I'm back on my feet againSurprised at myself for the way that I feel
So happy that you're here with me
Some women I've known they've left me with nothing
But I guess that was just meant to beAnd here I am
I'm back on my feet again
Here I am
I'm back on my feet againI was down for the count
I was down, I was beat
I was cryin', I was cornered and hurt
I was hidin' my face sittin', cryin'I was so lonely until I met you
Told myself I'd get by without love
Drownin' my sorrows, avoiding tomorrows
Kind of felt that I just had enoughAnd here I am
I'm back on my feet again
Here I am
I'm back on my feet againYes, here I am
I'm back on my feet again
Here I am
I'm back on my feet againHere I am
I'm back on my feet again
Here I am
I'm back on my feet againHere I am
I'm back on my feet again
Here I am
I'm back on my feet again
