

Pretending As Always

Anouk

I look at the ground
It's filled with lies
When you got lost
I got so lonely
Give it time
Don't move on
Let it dry
Time's passing by so slowly
Borderline face
I'll keep it straight
'Cause no one knows
I only have dark days
New love, no use
Pain in my face
And these are the bright days
In my dreams I'll make you want me
One more time the sun will shine
'Cause they won't love you like I've loved you
You still make me cry
Grieve makes numb
Every day
How does it come I get lost on the speedway?
No joy or delight
Just put me to bed
So I can shut my eyes tight
I was in it for the long run, yeah
There's no turning back, cause my heart is long gone
There's no turning back
In my dreams I'll make you want me
One more time the sun will shine
They won't love you like I've loved you
You still make me cry
In my dreams I'll make you want me
One more time the sun will shine
They won't love you like I've loved you
You still make me cry
