

You Remind Me

Mandy Moore

When I first saw you I couldn't believe
The way you smelled took the breath out of me
And maybe I'm seein' things
But if it's true don't wake me up from this dream You remind me of a love I knew
Feels so real it must be deja vu
You remind me but I ain't got a clue
Boy I'm so glad I found you Never thought I could love again
But then you came and changed something within
I'm so confused 'cause you're not the same
But there's something special that reminds me It's the way you walk and the way
You talk and you really got style
It's the way you move and the way
You groove and I love your smile, I love your smile You remind me of a love I knew
Feels so real it must be deja vu
You remind me but I ain't got a clue
Boy I'm so glad I found you I, I cannot figure it out
I ain't got a clue
I'm so confused about how I feel
'Cause I'm really feeling you It's the way you walk and the way
You talk and you really got style
It's the way you move and the way
You groove and I love your smile, I love your smile You remind me of a love I knew
Feels so real it must be deja vu
You remind me but I ain't got a clue
Boy I'm so glad I found you You remind me of a love I knew
Feels so real it must be deja vu
You remind me but I ain't got a clue
Boy I'm so glad I found you You remind me of a love I knew
Feels so real it must be deja vu
You remind me but I ain't got a clue
Boy I'm so glad I found you
