The Loved

Paul Weller

Everyone thinks it's fine
Making cash, coasting time
Everyone thinks it's fair
To be almost free, to be almost there
But not really aware, oh yeahAnyone can cry
So wipe away the phony tears in your eyes
Don't come 'round here expecting votes
See who charts the course on a sinking boatAnd whatever you give
Listen, you give to give
But humanity's so weak if it can it will give
The love of the lovedOh, the love of the loved
The love of the loved
The love of the loved
The loved, the loved, the loved, theThere's a man down there
And it should be clear
I thought we knew
And believed in it tooAnd anyone can see why
So wipe away the phony tears you cry
Don't come 'round here expecting votes
See who charts the course on a sinking boatOh, whatever you give
Listen, you give to give
But humanity's so weak if it can it will give
The loved of the lovedOh, the love of the loved
The love of the loved
The love of the loved
The loved, the loved, the loved, theThe love of the loved
Oh, the love of the loved
The loved, the loved, the loved, theSunlight, blue sky
Too blue, too short
